QUOTES FROM THE HOLY FATHERS

Silence greatly helps in spiritual life. It is good for one to practice silence for about an hour a day: to test himself, to acknowledge his passions and to fight in order to cut them off and purify his heart. It is very good if there is a quiet room in the house which gives him the feeling of a monastic cell. There, "in secret," he is able to do his spiritual maintenance, to study, and to pray. A little spiritual study done before prayer helps greatly. The soul warms up and the mind is transported to the spiritual realm. That is why, when a person has many distractions during the day, he should rejoice if he has ten minutes for prayer, or even two minutes to read something, so as to drive away distractions.

St. Paisios the Athonite

Every repetition of prayer will leave a mark of prayer on the soul. Uninterrupted practice in the order described will make it take root in your soul, and practice will establish a prayerful spirit. St. Theophan the Recluse

Lovers of slander and gossip shut themselves out from the kingdom of heaven…. It has been said: 'Better to slip on the ground than to slip with your tongue' (Ecclus. 20:18).

St. John of Karpathos

All the conflicts in the world have their origin in unabated anger. One is angry and wounds the other, who then responds with greater violence and strength. Once this chain is begun, it cannot be stopped except through the appeal of prayer – genuine prayer.

Elder George Calciu of Romania
