ST. BASIL ON THE HOLY SPIRIT

Through the Holy Spirit comes our restoration to Paradise, our ascension to the Kingdom of heaven, our adoption as God's sons, our freedom to call God our Father, our becoming partakers of the grace of Christ, being called children of the light, sharing in eternal glory, and in a word, our inheritance of the fullness of blessings, both in this world and the world to come. Even while we wait for the full enjoyment of the good things in store for us, by the Holy Spirit we are able to rejoice through faith in the promise of the graces to come. If the promise is so glorious, what must its fulfillment be like? We are also able to distinguish between grace that comes from the spirit and mere baptism in water. John baptized in water for repentance, but our Lord Jesus Christ baptized in the Holy Spirit. John said, "I baptize you with water, for repentance, but He who is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry; He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire."

QUOTES FROM THE HOLY FATHERS

The Holy Spirit raises our hearts to heaven, guides the steps of the weak, and brings to perfection those who are making progress. He enlightens those who have been cleansed from every stain of sin and makes them spiritual by communion with Himself. From the Holy Spirit comes foreknowledge of the future, understanding of the mysteries of faith, insight into the hidden meaning of Scripture, and other special gifts. Through the Holy Spirit we become citizens of heaven. We enter into eternal happiness, and abide in God.

St. Basil the Great

We are one in the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, as the embodied Word of God. We are one in commitment to Him, the Head of the Church, the King of Kings, the Lord of Lords. We are one in the confession that this commitment takes priority over all other commitments. We are one, because we are all subjects of the God of love and grace.

St. Seraphim of Sofia

He who is able to pray correctly, even if he is the poorest of all people, is essentially richest. And he who does not have proper prayer, is the poorest of all, even if he sits on a royal throne.

St. John Chrysostom
