QUOTES FROM THE HOLY FATHERS

Everything that you gain in your inner battle will be reflected in your life in God. Struggle against every passion which arouses in you critical thoughts about others. Do not accept what the enemy suggests to you against someone who is unjust towards you. Whether you are alone in your room or in company, every critical thought, every negative inner movement, creates a crack in your spiritual fortress and in that of your community. No thought is born or passes without consequence. With good thoughts, you will be able to see in every person that you meet someone very beloved. With negative thoughts, on the contrary, your facial expression and your psychological energies will spoil your relationships and affect the environment around you. When grace is with us, we do not see the defects in others; we only see the sufferings and love of our brethren.

St. Sophrony of Essex

My child, evil thoughts don't attack all at once; the passions don't rise against you all at the same time. They come one-by-one, and so you deal with them as they come.

St. Joseph the Hesychast
